RED CROSS SHIP TO AID WAR SUFFERERS

Collier Caesar Sails This Week With 2,000 Tons of Supplies for Orient.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11 .- With the sailing of the naval collier Caesar from New York next Thursday with a Christmas cargo of food, clothing and Christmas cargo of food, clothing and medicine for refugees of Armenia and Syria, Red Cross officials estimate America's contributions toward relieving the sufferings of war touch the $50,000,000 mark.

The Caesar carried 2,000 tons of food and clothing and $23,000 worth of hospital and surgical supplies. Included in her cargo are 1,006 cases of condensed milk for babies, $0,000 pounds of beans, 2,000 pounds of sugar, $25,000 pounds of whole wheat, $80,000 pounds of flour, 300,000 pounds of rice, 5,000 gallons of cottonseed oil and 100,000 pounds of crushed wheat.

The people of Armenia have little knowledge of the use of flour and do not like it. The Red Cross consulted Armenians in the United States, determined just how their countrymen like their wheat and then had mills crush it just as the Armenians do.

Animal Fats Net Esten.

Animal Fats Not Esten.

The cottonseed oil is sent in place of animal fats, which are not eater in Armenia and Syria. The Red Cross in Armenia and Syria. The Red Cross was informed that olive oil was considered highly desirable, but the cost was prohibitive and cottonseed oil was substituted.

The Caesar will stop at Gibraltar to take aboard a representative of the American embassy at Constantinople and proceed to Alexandria, Egypt, where she will deliver coal and supplies to the United States cruiser Des Moines. From there she will go directly to Beirut, Syria.

The clothing and food were gathered and contributed by the American committee for Armenian and Syrian-relief, while the Red Cross itself contributed the hospital and surgical supplies.

Bulk To Entento Allies.

From the beginning of the war until September 30 the Red Cross itself had received in contributions of cash and supplies about $3,225,000. Part of the money was spent in maintaining representatives in the field, and some was used for relief supplies. The total value of the supplies shipped to the entente silies' countries was $1,122,000, while the value of similar supplies shipped to the central powers was $350,000.

The difference in the figures is explained by the fact that for more than a year, because of British and French blockade measures, shipment to the central powers has been impossible. Arrangements now are being made, however, by which the Red Cross will be permitted to send units of physicians and nurses to take charge of a number of hospitals in Germany and Austria-Hungary. Each unit will consist of six doctors and eight nurses. Each unit will have charge of a hospital containing 600 beds.

Red Cross officials recently have be-heds.

Red Cross officials recently have begun to consider the part America will take in the period following the war, when much suffering is expected. The general idea goes far beyond the question of food and shelter and extends to the rehabilitation of the people.
